Andrew Blackman

For those of you planning to sail to the Costa Brava this fall, or to Portofino this coming spring, this program is a must.

Karl Coplan, a former commodore of the Nyack Boat Club sailed with his family as crew on his Hood 38 from Nyack to the Mediterranean and back within the last few years. I understand that he is still married and his family still lives with him.

Come hear about the voyage, ask those questions that no one else seems able to answer, and take voluminous notes for use when you set sail in his wake. ..._/_)

If you plan to eat at the Sons of Italy, please call to reserve no later than Wednesday so they may do food and service planning.
